Cinevita film fest

RICHARD Legaspi's "Ambulancia" will be shown today, 1 p.m., at the 2nd Cinevita Film Festival at the Thomas Aquinas Research Complex, University of Santo Tomas, España, Manila. This will be followed by Jasper Chavez Zarzuela's documentary "Tunay na Buhay?" at 4 p.m.

At 4:50 p.m., "Lababo," which won the grand prize in the first Viva-Pinoy Box Office Digitales short film competition, will be screened at the same venue.

Advocacy filmmaker Seymour Barros Sanchez co-directed the short film with former University of Makati Film Society chairperson Ginalyn Dulla during the height of the protests against the RP-US Visiting Forces Agreement in the wake of the conviction of US Marine Lance Cpl. Daniel Smith for the rape of a Filipina at the Subic Bay Freeport.

Cinevita focuses on positive, life-affirming features, short films and documentaries. It is organized by The Varsitarian and Institute of Religion, with the UST Journalism Society, UST
